APPENDIX 6. APPROVING OFFICIALS FOR RESTORATION OF FORFEITED ANNUAL LEAVE

As part of the ongoing effort to improve our effectiveness and efficiency, requests for restoration of forfeited annual leave no longer need to be forwarded to the servicing Human Resource Management Division for final review and approval. Therefore, the following officials are authorized to approve the restoration of forfeited annual leave caused by exigencies of the public business, sickness, or administrative error:

a. The Administrator, the Deputy Administrator, Chief Counsel, and assistant administrators and associate administrators for lines of business may approve leave restoration requests for all employees under their jurisdiction in Washington headquarters (including employees of tenant organizations at the Aeronautical Center and the FAA Technical Center).

b. The Director, Aeronautical Center, the Director, FAA Technical Center, and regional administrators may approve leave restoration requests for all employees under their jurisdiction. *
